ENTRY INFORMATION

This year's theme is: Down on the Farm. Central Ohio area residents Age 50 or over are invited to enter 2 items of original artwork, crafts or writing.

Entrants should take their entries to the Martin Janis Center at 11th Avenue at the Fairgrounds on Wednesday, April 23, between 10 am and 2 pm or on Thursday, April 24, between the hours of 5 and 7 pm. Parking is free and there is no charge to enter your items.

Any type of two or three dimensional art or craft work made by the entrant after the age of 50 is eligible. Winning entries are chosen by area artists and instructors. Ribbons and plaques are awarded by category. The theme: Down on the Farm, is a category for entries in any media. Recycled / repurposed work is a newer category. A pair or group of similar items may be considered as one entry with a limit of two items per person. Painting, photos and other two dimensional entries must be framed with hangers or otherwise ready to display or hang. Quilts and other wall-hangings should also be ready to hang, with casings for dowels or loops attached for hanging.

Writing and poetry entries may include a group of short poems or stories. They should be typed and enclosed in a plastic sleeve or otherwise ready for display or reading.

The event will be open to the public on Wednesday, May 7 and runs through May 16, with special entertainment and programs daily. Admission is free, with a charge for some of the special events. Family and friends are welcome. Lunch will be served every day from 11:30 am - 12:30 pm.

For information, please call event co-chair, Linda Jacobs, at the Gillie Center: 614-645-3106 or Doreen Gosha, Martin Janis Center Manager at 614-645-5954.
