Cultural Arts Center's "Traveling Picture Show" Exhibit Opens

What:

The Columbus Recreation and Parks Department's Cultural Arts Center (CAC) will present the works of photographer Stephen Takacs. Traveling Picture Show is a document of his cross-country journeys with the Brownie In Motion Project. Contrary to the cultural trend towards heavily retouched imagery, these photographs decidedly return to the roots of the medium itself. This ongoing exploration is an effort to understand where we've been, where we are going, and what may be forgotten in the name of progress.

Who:

Stephen Takacs

When:

Reception is Fri., Feb. 19, 6-8 pm

Exhibit runs Feb. 19 – Mar. 19, 2016

Conversations & Coffee Art Talks, Feb. 25, noon - 1 pm

Where:

Cultural Arts Center
139 West Main Street

Stephen Takacs Built a Room-Size Camera ...

Stephen Takacs built a room-sized camera and carted it all over America, taking large-format photographs of people doing trades and jobs that are being replaced by technology, just as the film camera has been replaced by digital. Along the way, the camera became an art installation; and the action of photography an art performance. "Brownie in Motion: Traveling Picture Show," runs Feb. 19 – Mar. 19 at the Cultural Arts Center, Columbus Recreation and Parks Department, 139 West Main Street. Opening Reception is Feb. 19, 6-8 pm; Conversations & Coffee Art Talk is Feb. 25, noon – 1 pm.
