City of Columbus Zoning Process

- A = Applicant (e.g. owner, buyer, representing attorney, lobbyist - for registration info: https://www.columbus.gov/council/How-Do-I/Legislative-Agent-Information/)
- CC = City Council
- CD = City Departments (e.g. Public Service, Recreation & Parks, Development, Public Safety)
- CG = Community Groups (e.g. Area Commission, Civic Association, Architectural Review)
- DC = Development Commission
- P = Public
- Z = Zoning Staff
- ZC = Zoning Chair of City Council
Rezoning or Council variance application is submitted to the Department of Building & Zoning Services by the Applicant.

http://bzs.columbus.gov/

Zoning staff mails the application to the Community Group and posts the application on the “Active Case Log” accessed on the BZS webpage.

- Public may participate in the Community Group’s process. Contact your respective Community Group to learn their individual review process:
  https://www.columbus.gov/neighborhoodservices/

Zoning staff visits the site, notes condition of the site and surroundings, takes pictures, and prepares application for review by City Departments.
City Departments and Zoning staff review the application. Staff Review meetings are conducted on the third Thursday of the month.

City Departments and Zoning staff complete review. Comments and issues are listed in a results letter forwarded to the Applicant.

Applicant responds to review and submits any necessary revisions to City Departments, Zoning staff, and the Community Group. For Council variance requests, final materials are submitted and the ordinance prep stage begins (see Step 12).
7) Community Group submits recommendations to Zoning staff.

8) The Development Commission Agenda (Rezoning Applications only) is posted in the City Bulletin and on the City website by zoning staff. Notices are sent to property owners within 125’ of the site two weeks before the Commission meets.
