To whom it may concern:

Since the acquisition of The Gas House in 2004 and the purchase of the retail building located at 4500 Indianola Avenue, it has been painfully clear, to customers and employees alike, the lack of any clearly marked signage down by the Indianola street level.

Attempts at other forms of signage on our own property have proved seemingly fruitless, including a stone structure at the end of our property line, company logo covering the eastern face of the building, and 50 ft. flag pole. The most effective result, relatively speaking, has come from a small sandwich board sign placed down by the road daily.

It is our firm belief that a properly placed logo at street level would promote traffic safety, as many of our customers have expressed the dangers involved with finding our location. The business in front of us, owned by Robert Gardner D.D.S., has donated a plot of their land in order to facilitate a sign. They have witnessed the traffic issues caused by finding the business and the multitude of our customers that utilize their parking lot, either for space or as a turn-around.
