

Developed Area Definition and Map

While eligible projects anywhere within the City of Columbus may apply, priority or extra incentives may be available for those that meet the developed area definition. This applies to LEED projects involving an existing building, and any project within the 1950 City Boundaries or CDBG service area, as shown on the following map:

