

New Century Farms Product Offering 2013

New Century Farms is run by Tim Cook with wife Allison and Christy, Zach, Ethan, Tyler, Nathan.

They use sustainable practices meaning minimal use of chemicals and would let any of their children eat right off the farm at any time. They are not certified organic as its cost prohibitive at this time for them. All produce will be picked fresh the day of delivery.

Tim collaborates with Rhoads Farm and Schacht Farm for fruits, corn and other seasonal items.
