

Should You Be Screened for TB?

Take this quick survey to find out.

		YES	NO
1-	Are you taking Enbrel, Humira, Cimzia, Remicade, Simponi, Thalomid?
2-	Have you ever had a chest x-ray that was "suggestive" of TB?
3-	Do you have any of the following chronic medical problems (Silicosis, diabetes, kidney disease, or Cancer of the lung, head, or neck)?
4-	Have you had an organ transplant?
5-	Do you have a weakened immune system?
6-	Have you been taking at least 15 milligrams of steroids each day for a month or more?
7-	Are you HIV positive?
8-	Were you born in a country where TB is common and have been in the U.S. less than 5 years?
9-	Do you use IV drugs?
10-	Have you or are you living in a group home, MRDD setting, homeless shelter, jail/prison, or nursing home?
11-	Have you had close contact with someone who has infectious TB?

If you answered "YES" to ANY of these questions:
It is recommended that you be screened for tuberculosis.

If you have any questions call 645-2199