

ALL BABIES MATTER

Recognizing Infant Mortality Awareness Month - September 2011

UNDERSTANDING THE IMPACT OF RACISM ON BIRTH OUTCOMES FOR AFRICAN AMERICAN WOMEN

Featuring

Arthur James, MD, FACOG

Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology
The Ohio State University and Nationwide Children's Hospital

WHEN Tuesday, September 13, 2011 8:30 to 11:30a.m.

WHERE Columbus Public Health Auditorium, 240 Parsons Ave., Columbus OH

OBJECTIVES

1. Describe the impact of racism on birth outcome and preterm births for African American women.
2. Identify key environmental, social and behavioral factors that contribute to increased risks and disparities in birth outcomes.
3. Analyze the 3 dimensional model addressing poor birth outcomes.
4. Discuss characteristics of effective interventions that enhance medical accessibility.
5. Propose critical points to construct on-going initiatives to reduce disparities in birth outcomes.

WHO Healthcare providers and general public invited

CREDIT 2.58 Nursing CE available

COST Free

RSVP Please RSVP to Pat Lyons at palyons@columbus.gov or 614-645-3957

The planners and faculty have no personal, professional or financial relationships of self or significant other nor is there any conflict of interest for this learning activity.

There is no commercial support or sponsorship for this learning activity.

Criteria for successful completion include attendance of the entire learning activity and submission of a completed evaluation form.

2.58 Nursing Contact Hours awarded for successful completion of this learning activity.

Columbus Public Health (OH-075, 6/1/2012) is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Ohio Nurses Association (OBN-001-91), an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation